Be Prepared to Succeed in Marriage!

Summer is here and with it a rash of weddings. Unfortunately, couples often spend more time preparing for the wedding than for their marriage.

Good pre-marriage counseling has shown to be a valuable investment, insuring more marital satisfaction. Many of our staff are prepared to provide pre-marriage counseling services utilizing the Prepare-Enrich Inventory.

Often parents and grandparents provide this counseling as a gift to newlyweds. Too late to take advantage of this service before the wedding consider it as a good investment after the honeymoon is over.

As a SPECIAL OFFERING to this year's marrying couples, we will provide a FREE Inventory and Interpretation session to a lucky couple. Register now by clicking on the link below! The drawing will be held on June 15th and the lucky couple will be announced in our next newsletter.
